

A PROJECT OF SMITH & MERCER

Don't miss the New York Times bestselling phenomenon!

“You could
spend a lifetime
brainstorming.”

— The New Yorker

Who doesn't love the
payroll lady?

— Mindy Getch, “Why I Do What I Do”

Can't quit.
I own the place.

— Cecil Moore,
“What Inspires My Very Best Work”

SIX WORDS ABOUT WORK

Deceptively simple and surprisingly addictive, Six Words About Work offers hundreds of glimpses of what people think about their jobs—six words at a time.

In a world where technology has made it easier to communicate yet shrunk our attention spans, SMITH Magazine has found a medium perfectly suited for contemporary thought: the Six-Word Memoir.

Work today has never been more personal or more complex. With that in mind, SMITH Magazine, a leader in personal,
passionate storytelling, joined forces with Mercer, a leading provider of HR consulting, outsourcing and investments, to create the “Six Words About Work” project. In precisely six words, thousands of people revealed the core aspects of what moves and motivates them in their respective careers. Now, the very best of these entries have been collected
for the latest book in the Six-Word Memoir series. Get ready to be surprised, inspired and illuminated—and to start thinking in sixes.

View
from top
worth the climb.

— Donna L. Haring,
“What Inspires
My Very Best Work”

The CEO
knew every
intern's name.

— Elisa Shevitz,
“The Best Boss
I Ever Had”

Wrote
thank you
on my paychecks.

— Michelle Peterson,
“The Best Boss I Ever Had”

Press every button until
printer works.

— Melesha Owen,
“Biggest Lesson I Learned at Work”

PUBLISHED BY SMITH
www.smithmag.net

design by
Nicole Salzano

$12.95
ISBN # 978-0-9847350-0-6

SIX WORDS ABOUT WORK FROM SMITH MAGAZINE AND MERCER  sixwordmemoirs.com

SIX WORDS ABOUT WORK

FROM SMITH MAGAZINE
THE CREATORS OF THE BESTSELLING
SIX-WORD MEMOIR SERIES
AND MERCER